The Pendleton Board of Zoning Appeals (BZA) is authorized to approve or deny variances from the terms of the Pendleton Unified Development Ordinance. The BZA may impose reasonable conditions as part of its approval. A Variance of Use may be approved only upon a determination in writing that the following five (5) statements are true (see Indiana Code 36-7-4-918.4).

1. The approval will not be injurious to the public health, safety, morals, and general welfare of the community. Explain why this statement is true in this case:

2. The use and value of the area adjacent to the property included in the variance will not be affected in a substantially adverse manner by the approval of this variance request. Explain why this statement is true in this case:

3. The need for the variance arises from some condition peculiar to the property involved. Explain why this statement is true in this case:

4. The strict application of the terms of the zoning ordinance will constitute an unnecessary hardship if applied to the property for which the variance is sought. Explain why this statement is true in this case:

5. The approval does not interfere substantially with the Town of Pendleton Comprehensive Plan. Explain why this statement is true in this case:

The above information, to my knowledge and belief, is true and correct.
